Youth Orchestra Presents Concert

The Nashville Youth Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Don Campbell will present a concert in the McClurkan auditorium, Saturday, April 9, at 7:30 p.m.

Included in the numbers to be played will be Beethoven's Symphony in the 5th movement, Norwegian Medley of Folk songs and Modern Suite.

The orchestra is made up of approximately fifty members. Betty Meggs Browning, Wayne Shelton and Louis Hassell who are former Trevecca students were at one time members of the orchestra.

Everyone is urged to attend this concert. You will find it entertaining as well as educational.

Student Council Sponsors Better Citizen Drive

The Student Council unanimously voted to sponsor a Better Citizen Drive. This will include respecting the rights of others in the tea room, less complaining, more school spirit and support, care of the campus and other things which will make us better T.N.C. citizens.

In order to avoid the last minute rush on activities the council voted to set as a dead-line for all activities May 23, except for traditional activities previously planned. The last two weeks are full of exams and commencement exercises; therefore, activities should be planned earlier.

Chapel Speakers Present Series on Holy Trinity

Our president, Dr. A. B. Mackey, who had just returned from Marietta, Georgia High School, spoke on the work he did there.

Believing that better understanding of the theology of God, the Holy Spirit, and Christ would help the students in the coming days, three of our chapel services were given to these. Rev. M. E. Redford brought the first message on God, stressing the magnitude of God.

Easter

The Resurrection of Jesus should be the climactic evidence that He is the Christ; and the fact that He arose from the dead assures me that if I believe in Him and follow Him to the end of my life, I shall also rise from the dead to meet Him when He comes again.

E. S. Carmen, who for many years was a member of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene, said that he designed the electromagnet, which is used to load and unload scrap iron. He said when they were experimenting with it, he directed his men to load it to its capacity, and in some instances, it would lift as much as two tons of metal. He explained to the men that it wouldn't pick up the dirt, or the rock, or wood—only the metal, which was similar to the metal in the electromagnet. He explained to them that it could be compared to the Christ who said: "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." But Mr. Carmen said the metal of the men must be similar to that of the Christ. He continued with his illustrations by having his men clean off a place in the scrap iron yards, and as far as they could see, there was no iron on the ground. Then he said: "Put the electromagnet over the place two inches from the ground and see what happens." To their surprise, the power of the magnet pulled hundreds of little pieces of steel from underneath the soil. Then he said: "When Jesus comes back again, by the time He reaches the clouds, His power will lift the dead in Christ from the grave."

I trust that we will think more upon the power of Christ that can lift men from the scrap-heaps of humanity and prepare them to live forever with Him who arose from the dead and is alive forevermore.

Give in Easter Offering

Last Friday in chapel the Missionary Prayer Band sponsored the annual Easter offering for foreign missions; again this Friday you will have opportunity to give. Why not sacrifice something for Christ? Is true sacrifice a mere giving up of something we would not miss, or does it not involve something of a deeper, more divine nature? The Apostle, in writing to the Corinthians, said, "... and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love ...", illustrating that an essential characteristic of real sacrifice is LOVE. We have never had occasion to lay our physical life down for our fellow man, but again this Easter we are challenged to "give in the light of Calvary." This involves more than just giving—it must be accompanied by a heart full of genuine love. One woman gave the price of a new Easter hat she had wanted so much—what are YOU SACRIFICING for the sake of dying humanity? Christ gave everything for you; what are you giving for Him?

North Carolina Motorcade—expected April 12, 13.

Keep Sabbath Day Holy

Our Republic was founded upon Christian principles, one of which is reverence for the Lord's Day. Our Presidents, with rare exception, have respected this day in peace time and war. Washington in the Revolutionary War, Lincoln in the Civil War, and Wilson in the first World War gave orders relieving troops as far as possible "from fatigue duty on Sunday." They based these orders on "a due regard to the Divine will." Hays and Garfield habitually walked to church that their servants might rest and worship on the Lord's Day. Hoover, when invited to join a fishing party on Sunday, replied, "The Hoovers never fish on Sunday."

Business and recreation are the order of the day and too frequently church members, when reproved of their Sabbath desecration, faintly reply, "I'm only pulling the ox out of the ditch." They fail to add though, that they push the ox in the ditch on Saturday by their failure to take care of secular matters. So far as is possible we should devote our time to spiritual pursuits on the Lord's Day.

The world needs today people with sufficient regard for holy things to say, "Not today, thank you," when asked to turn from worship to work or play on the Lord's Day.

First Church Observes Trevecca Day, March 20

First Church of the Nazarene designated Sunday, March 20, as Trevecca Day and special effort was given to raising money for the Expansion Fund for Trevecca. The College A Capella Choir were guests for the morning service and presented several numbers in song, including "Jesus is Mighty To Save," "Hallelujah For The Blood," "Joshua, So's I Can Write My Name," "Hallelujah What a Savior," "O, For A Thousand Tongues," and "I Know I'm Saved," directed by Prof. Ramon Unruh. Thanks to Dr. Ewell and the members of First Church for going over their goal of $1,275.00 in contributions.

Dr. Mackey Speaks at Youth Banquet

Trevecca students are proud of their president, Dr. Mackey. He represents the college in many places with a vital message for the youth of today. His unique speaking ability makes him a popular speaker wherever he goes.

His Plan

Long ago, ere man could sing Of sweet redemption's theme, Our loving Father planned a way His creatures to redeem.

Therefore He sent His only Son— The Prince—who knew no sin, To shed His blood that He might be

A Sacrifice for men.

For whosoever will call on Him Though dead—yet shall he live! God's arms are ever open wide, Pardon and cleansing to give. But how shall they call except they hear

The tidings of God's love?

Multitudes have never been told The message from above.

How blessed are the feet of those Who go, this news to spread;

How Jesus gives to the hung'ring His Word—the living Bread!

As Jesus calls, can you not hear The dying millions cry?

Then whisper, with your hand in His,

"Here, Master—here am I!"

Student Council

The council suggested and discussed the possibility of having an honor system here at Trevecca. We believe that personal honor is one of the keystones for successful college work. Who should make an honor system work better than Christian students? This system would put students on their honor not to lie, steal or cheat in academic work and to report anyone who does.

Collegiate dress for our college men has been of some concern lately to the council. We would like to encourage ties, sport jackets or sweaters, and slacks for regular school wear.

The council is sponsoring the Light Bulb Campaign in an effort to raise money for the paving of the tennis courts or other worthwhile projects. Groups will be organized from the classes with the highest salesmen receiving awards. This campaign will last for several weeks.

The Cancer Drive this year will be sponsored by the council. We urge all to participate if you have not done so.

Dr. Mackey was the guest speaker for the Young People's Banquet in Greensboro, North Carolina on March 25. There was an unusual attendance of one hundred forty-seven for this annual occasion. Dr. Mackey's subject was, "And greater things than these shall ye do".

Student Council Presents Dr. John L. Stockton

The Student Council lectures will be presented by Dr. John L. Stockton, General Treasurer of the Church of the Nazarene. This annual lecture series was begun in the year 1947-48 under the sponsorship of the Student Advisory Council with the aim of providing inspiration in various fields of cultural and professional interest. The lectures will begin on Monday, April 18 and continue through Friday, April 22. The morning lectures at 11:00 a.m. will be in the McClurken Auditorium and the evening lectures at 7:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

John L. Stockton, LL.D., has served as General Treasurer of the Church of the Nazarene since 1945. For twenty years Dr. Stockton was active in the field of banking. In Oklahoma City he was associated with the Southwest National Bank and the First National Bank. For two years he was assistant to the Bank Commissioner of the State of Oklahoma. From 1941 to 1945, Mr. Stockton was business manager of Bethany College, Bethany, Oklahoma.

Dr. Stockton is a member of several key committees of the Church: the Finance Committee of the General Board; the General Stewardship Committee; and Relocation and Pensions Committees. He is chairman of the Headquarters Building Committee, which drew up plans for a $325,000.00 Headquarters Building, now being erected in Kansas City.

Recently Mr. Stockton was awarded the honorary Doctor of Laws degree by Bethany College.

Begin Day with Prayer

Just a reminder — when you begin your day with prayer everything goes better. We have an early morning prayer meeting each morning in the McClurkan Auditorium. Everyone comes in and prays as long as he wishes and leaves when he is through. There is soft organ music from 7:30 till 8:00 to help you get in the attitude of worship.

Darda Goes to Press

"Those that work hard eat hearty," is the motto which greets the eye of every visitor to the Darda office. This little witty saying, which is written on a flower planter hanging between the double windows in the office, has been the motto of the 1955 Darda staff, as they put in long hours of hard labor for the yearbook. Editor Rose Merchant breathed a long sigh of relief as Business Manager R. T. Kendall turned in the last ad, and Literary Editor Ruth Johnson typed up the last bit of manuscript and the remaining odds and ends were finally packed off to Benson Printing Company last week. Miss Merchant, ably assisted by her co-editor, Frankie Edwards, has done an excellent job, and Trevecca students can look forward to one of the best Dardas ever published. Clubs editor Ruby Potter has faithfully worked at the job, willingly doing things which were beyond her regular duties. Typist Wanda Phillips has been right there diligently clicking off the copy. Other members of the staff who have also done their jobs efficiently and well are

Alabama Caravan Visits Campus, March 24-25

Approximately thirty-five young people from Alabama visited the campus, classrooms and dormitories on March 24 and 25. These prospective Trevecca students traveled by car and one group was accompanied by Rev. Elbert Watson, pastor of East Gadsden Nazarene Church; the other group was from Tuscaloosa Holten Heights Church.

It was a pleasure to have these young people on our campus, and we trust that for their college training they will choose Trevecca Nazarene College.

Students Give Recital

The Fine Arts Auditorium was the scene of a music and speech recital on March 18 at 7:45 p.m.

The program was composed of the following numbers: "Butterfly," "Rondo" and "Avalanche" by Ruth Ann Duke, pianist; "Calm as the Night," vocal solo by Barbara Mooney; "Le Polichinelle," "In the Garden" and "What a Friend" by James Ralph, pianist; "Obstination" and "I Like Them All," vocal solos by Rose Merchant; "Polichinelle" by Frances Tucker, pianist; "Song of India," vocal solo, by Gloria Hollis; "Romance" by Emily Hamilton, pianist; "Edith Cavell," reading, by Barbara Arnold; and "Rhapsody" by Frances Tucker and Emily Hamilton, piano duet.

Sophomores Honor Team

In honor of their basketball team who won championship, the Sophomores sponsored a banquet at Greers' Restaurant, on March 24.

The decorations centered around the beautiful trophy which was presented to the team. Variegated red and white carnations and maline made up the centerpieces.

Mrs. Phillips, the class sponsor, pronounced the invocation and the Crusaders quartet sang. The class president, Denzil Huff, expressed the classes' appreciation of the team.

The menu included appetizer, fried chicken, candied yams, green beans, peach cobbler, and coffee, tea, or milk.

LITTLE "ETIE-QUE"

Writes To You

August 5, 1955

Dear Miss Ray:

Thank you lots for the red blouse. It is awfully pretty. I'm sure I can wear it with my orange suit.

Your Friend; Katherine.

Do you write letters like this? If you do, these few hints could be of help to you. For the many different types of letters, there are many phrases which may express your feelings.

For letters of condolence you may use . . . I know too well that words cannot comfort you. . . It is written, "As thy days so shall thy strength be" . . . or "May God's love shine more and more in our hearts until the day breaks and the shadows flee away."

For letters of thanks, you may use . . . The grateful sense I have of your kindness will never be erased from my mind. . . I am sending this letter as the silent messenger of my thanks and good wishes to you.

These and many other expressions can help you with the proper phrasing of your letters. With all letters and cards, be neat and use a legible handwriting. If you are careful in using correct form, grammar, and phrasing, feel free to send your letter to anyone.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Professor and Mrs. Walter Thompson who are proud parents of a baby girl. Ruby Claire was born March 24 at the Mid-state Baptist Hospital.

Sophomore President Plans for Ministry

Trev-Echoes continues its presentation of student leaders. From the ranks of Sophomores comes Kentuckian Denzil Ray Huff.

During his high school days at Holmes High in Covington, Kentucky, Denzil was an outstanding student. He was a member of the band, on the track team, served as vice-president of his junior class, and during his senior year held the most coveted office in every high school — Student Council President.

Denzil is getting experience for the ministry during his years here at Trevecca. He is a member of the Ministerial Association and Missionary Prayer Band. His most outstanding office is that of President of the Sophomore Class.

His Christian home had a great influence in Denzil's life. He was saved at an early age and has taken part in church activities, being president of his Hi-Y and singing in the church choir.

Student Center Acquires Games

Those dull Saturday nights will soon be over! Instead of just sitting around, we will be enjoying ourselves in the new student center. Classes and clubs are buying different pieces of equipment. The latest addition to the center is the purchase of four new games by the College Junior Class; they are Scrabble, Dominoes, Checkers and Sorry. The center is for us; therefore we are responsible for it. Let's make it a place where we can have a good time by taking care of it.

Churches Respond to Expansion Program

The field work, under the direction of Rev. Clifford E. Keys, Field Representative, is using all available groups over the weekends in visiting churches in the interest of the Expansion Program for Trevecca College. The choir, quartets and trios are visiting churches, mostly in Tennessee, at this time. The response of our people is very fine.

Second row, Wallace Bell, Ruth Johnson, R. T. Kendell, Frankie Edwards, Rose Merchant.

SPORTS NOTES

The birds have started their songs and quarter exams are over; so it must be spring. If all this is true it is SOFTBALL time.

Let's take a glance at the teams that will make up the T. N. C. League:

The high school will not have the aid of Phillip Rogers' pitching this year but could come up with a very fine team. It looks as though they will finish in the first ring of the second division.

The Freshmen who have done very well in football and basketball, should come up with a very fine team. They will be in the first division and could finish on top of the league.

The Sophomores get the nod to win the season again this year. Harold Hughes, the league's leading pitcher last year, is back.

The Upperclassmen, who have been hit hard by the loss of Howard Spruill, and are still looking for players, may have a poor showing. It looks like a long season for the Upperclassmen.

Last year the Freshmen and Sophomores finished in a tie for the league championship in softball. The league play-off was won by the Freshmen 6-5 in ten innings. This 6-5 defeat prevented the Sophs from winning a "Triple Crown."

Improvements Continue

It seems with every day there are some new improvements to our campus. This is referring especially to the new sidewalks, the terracing back of McKay Hall, shrubbery around Tidwell and the new track on the ball field.

Chapel

Rev. K. W. Phillips brought an appreciated message on Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Rev. Claude W. Galloway's message was on the Holy Spirit, showing Him in his relationship to God and Christ. They are in co-operation together. The Holy Spirit is like the wind and river of water when it enters one's life.

On Friday, March 18, Dr. A. B. Mackey again spoke to us, giving encouragement. His Scripture was Galatians 6:9. The good seed we are sowing now as we prepare for the future will come forth in a beautiful harvest in the future.

After examinations and registration the new quarter was started off right with Dr. Mackey speaking again on March 24. He exhorted us to lay our treasures on the other shore.

Evangelist Jack Hamilton spoke on the importance of a man's soul on March 25, using as his Scripture Matthew 16:26.

These have been profitable services to young people preparing for life.

If you love life, don't waste time . . . of which life is made.

Stars Defeat Champs With 45-36 Victory

The All-T.N.C. team fought off a fourth quarter spurt by the Sophomores and drove on to a 45-36 victory. The Champs cut the lead to three points, 36-33, but could never close the gap. The Stars led at all quarter markers 15-7, 22-17, and 33-24.
